

Black Man White Paper

as the beast calls out the numbers and you try to stay in time An army of blue shirts coming down the line trying make you understand you are running out of time but he still stands there he's just doing fine

chorus

standing in the middle of the square
nothing to declare
telling us beware!

hands raised in the air he got a white piece of paper with nothing to declare but he's screaming out the message for everyone to see you move him from where he is and the same applies to me

nothing to declare
telling us beware!
